GRADE NINES SHOW KING PRIDE AT ROC KING

For the fifth year, grade nines, teachers, and TAP mentors from grades eleven and twelve headed to Camp Robin Hood for a three day adventure called "Roc King Camp". Grade nines had the opportunity to participate in activities such as wall climbing, swimming, canoeing, and archery. The nines were given a challenge at the beginning of the week to collect "tokens"; a group could gain tokens by participating and showing school spirit. At the end of the week each TAP group added up their tokens and the winners received one of three prizes, including a hot breakfast, a hot lunch or a cold breakfast. "The weather was perfect!" says Andrew Rolfe, TAP mentor. He continued, saying, "We couldn't have asked for a better week." School spirit was definitely evident during the week, from decorating buses to decorating people. The grade nines sure know how to get school spirit going. A big thanks goes out to all the teachers and TAP mentors that made Roc King Camp a complete sucess!

Eric Bangshaw and Shane Jones strut their stuff at the 2003 Senior Auction as the girls go wild to make their purchases. LOOKIN' fine boys!

King City has changed many times during the past decades; different teachers, students and principals have all been part of our school's incredible history. The one thing that has never changed is our spirit. Our mascot is the lion because our spirit is strong in sports, academics and extra-curricular activities. During these times, we put our differences aside and stand together, strong and impossible to break.

Oh how time have changed what happened to the good old days when the seniors were revered and respected. Grade 9 Auction, 1972

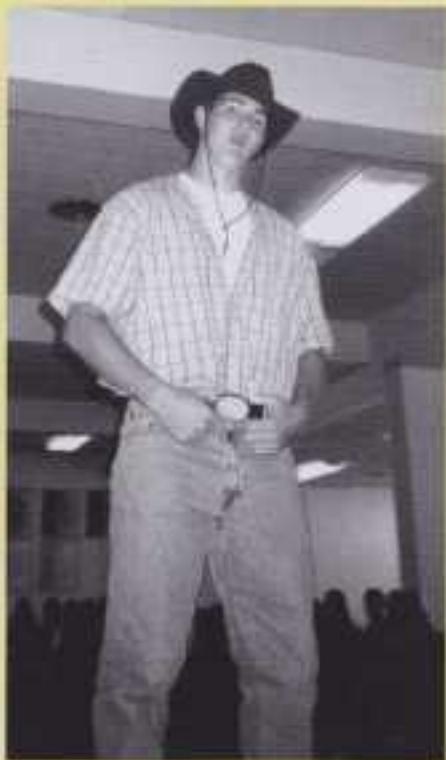

During spirit week, the halls are filled with a sea of green and gold ribbons and spray-painted heads. All teams are adorned in their jerseys, proud and noble. Our spirit never dies.

Right: Cassandra Skropelitis puts the finishing touches the journalism class door. When asked about her door decorating ideas she says, "It's all in the green and gold; isn't my door pretty?"

Top: Heidi and Randy get auctioned off to rampant King City students. While back in the good old days of 1928, this grade 8 recycles brutal initiation. I ask the Grade 9's of 2003, Do you feel lucky punk?

King Karnival

On June 4th, 2003 Student council hosted King Karnival. There were many fun activities planned and enjoyed by all. With cotton candy, dunk the teacher, sumo wrestling, play boxing and many other events there were plenty of ways to show your school spirit. Many students came out to support our school and to show off their school spirit. The interaction between teachers and students was fun. It's the one-day of the year when you can forget about work and just think about play.

1- Hit or Miss: This is definitely a hit. Mr. Edgar gets a pie thrown at him and he doesn't seem mad at all. That's because it's all in good fun, right?

2- Rebecca Craig gets her face painted to show off her school spirit on King Karnival.

3- Ready, Set, GO! These three students hard at work slapping up their jobs to be slapped the fastest job slapping man.

4- I want Candy! Carolyn MacRitchie works hard twirling around a bundle of cotton candy to suppress someone's craving for candy.

5- Jason McMann suits up to take on his opponent. If he succeeds in defeating his opponent, that would be a big surprise.

6- Let's get znaid to rumble! Mr. Boteman is close to getting boxed by his opponent Derek Marquart. Better watch out or you'll be lying on the ground soon.

7- Kerplunk! Mr. Miller waits in anticipation for someone to start along and think him. This was one of the most popular games at King Karnival. Who would pass up the chance to dunk a teacher?

8- Threes Company: You can always be sure to find Mr. Lukewich, Ms. Christie, and Ms. Motola together. Whether it's at La Paloma or at the King Karnival.

9- Bottom Buddies: Alissa Martin and Elisa Cappuccini pose to get a quick picture in before they return to enjoy the fun activities at King Karnival.

Keep On Truck 'N

From modified, to Mommy and Daddy's, to taking a chunk out of our wallets every month, the cars in K.C.S.'s parking lot definitely reflect the students that go here.

Tyler Pellegrino's orange 222 with a pearl adds the character to the basic "Keep On truck'n" school.

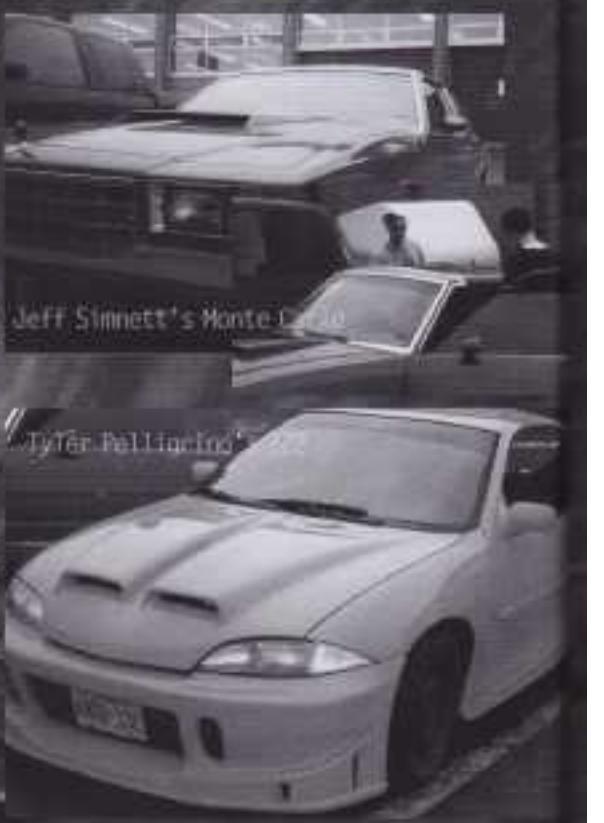

The S.U.V.s and trucks are definitely a favoured and evident mode of transportation. The Forbes twins with "B-ND-B," Lech Rossi with "Big Red," Kara Park with "Willy, (now deceased)" to the many other Dodges, Fords, Chevy's and Bronco's parading and parking around the walls of K.C.S.S.

Football games to late night parties, to McDonalds down the road, our rides are definitely our reliable sources of transportation. From the days of relying on Mom and Dad, that have now changed into being about us on the road.

Over the last year, the accidents at, and around King have been a wake up and reminder to all of us of just how scary it can be. From minor feeder benders, to hit from behind, rolled into ditches, swerving to avoid deer, and all sorts, being on the road definitely makes all of us appreciate things just a little more.

But for some, that G2 license is yet to be a luxury. For those, the "Dude" wagon is the way to do.

There is the other few students that chose the least available resource, but the much easier way to go. For those, the M2 is the way to go. Dan Hatsu's Honda is the perfect example of one fast, but only summerized, ride.

Express yourself

Mari's STYLISH Peter Schiano look.

From the conventional earing to the daring art of tattoos, K.C.S.S students sport them all. The permanence, the ink, the holes, the pain and the infections are all a part of the risk that these people experience to express themselves. Clothes, and accessories only say so much about someone on the outside, but tattoos and body piercings can express their unique identity in a "cool" and "rebellious" way.

Donna's belly ring symbolizes her alternative nature.

Josh Barber's some said that his eyebrows were a bit too real.

and smoking. Lucy Husted goes with her "tasty" eyeshadow.

What will you tell your grandchildren?

"My belly button has magical powers!"

-Shanna Beaton (2 belly rings)

"especially, I won't have any, so if I do I'll just say it's a sit. I have those rings."

"I was a crazy kid and the tattoo represents my friend given to me in high school!"

-Dante Higgins (tattoo)

"Tattoos are a great way to express yourself but get something that shows who you are... and wait until you're older!"

-Justine Baker (tattoo)

"I won't tell them about my tattoo because they'll never get to meet him!"

-Jessica Black

Justine Baker's tattoo is a memory of her grandfather. It looks like her uncle swimming over her back.

Justine Baker's friend, childhood memory is the grandfather she died on her ankle.

Samantha's tattoo reflects her strong personality.

Dante Higgins' tattoo honors his dad.

Body Art!!!

"Everyone is different so a tattoo is a way to express who you are and identify where you're from."

Dante Higgins' tattoo artist:

Cathy McLean is proud to be a Canadian.

Jeff Morris' tattoo combines his love for money and his country.

Family Matters At KESS

Every family has a Steve Erkle, but we still have to put up with them everyday of our lives. There's always going to be the nerd, the rebellious child, and the suck up. You can figure out who they are for yourselves. Siblings will constantly want to either rip each other's heads off, or protect them completely. Brothers and sisters have those special bonds that keep them together through the hard times and the good. Even if they are the siblings who always steal food off of your own plate, you still love them.

Of course if you're a brother, you have the upper hand. It's your job to protect your sister from the bad boyfriends. As for the sisters it's your primary job to give advice on the do's and don'ts of dating. Both ways can win. Two sisters would help each other get ready for King's prom and two brothers would help each other get pumped up for the junior and senior football games. Whether you're helping each other improve your tackles, or getting ready for semi, you can still count on your brother or sister.

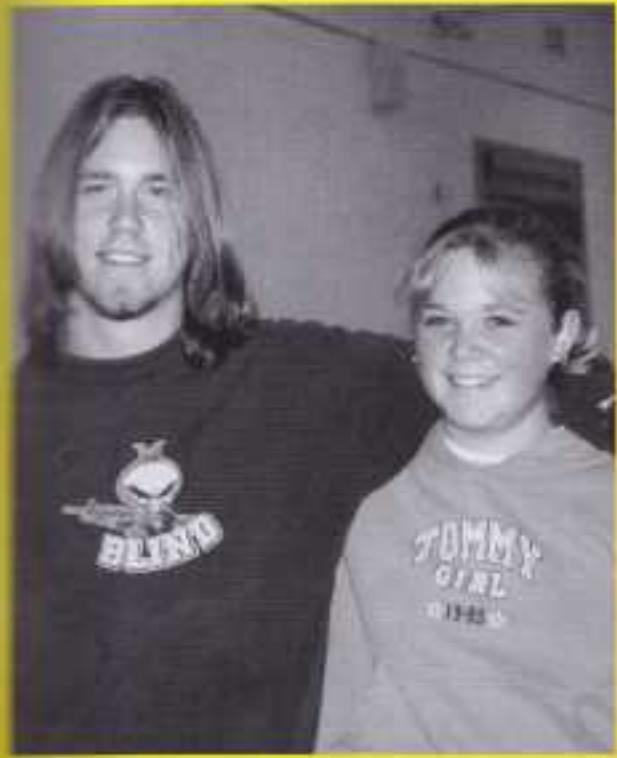

So, what did we learn from this? If you're a sister, or a brother you still have fun doing things together for King's school events. Siblings can help improve your pass, or your hair and on certain days they'll be there to make fun too.

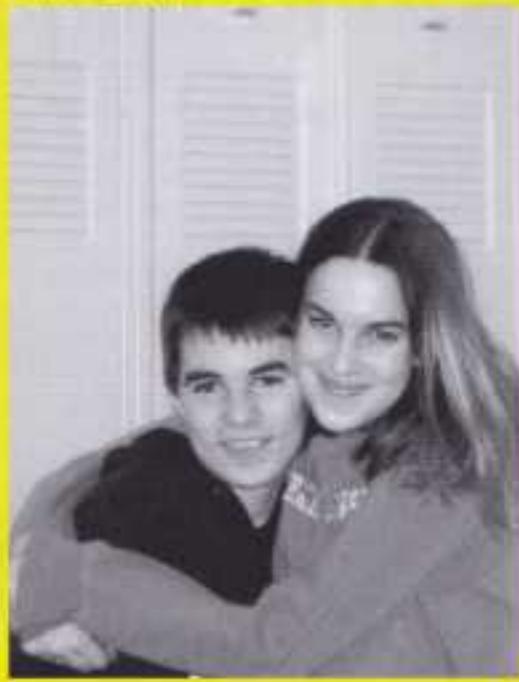

Danielle Carlisse proudly stops to take a picture with younger brother Jesse. "I've saved his butt too many times," she said with a big smile on her face.

Natalie Stres had to take some time to think of something nice to say about her little brother Mitchell. When she finally thought of something she said, "Mitchell is awesome, but he always tries to act like my bodyguard."

Sean and Erin MacTaggart pose for a picture happily. "She's good for money when I need her," Sean MacTaggart said after thinking hard.

While posing with older sister Sunny Russo, Christopher said "Some may say that I'm the outcast of the family, but at least I have a normal name."

"It's awesome having a twin, it confuses people usually and it's funny when it does," Gabriel said. His brother Michael completely agreed.

"He's cool for a little brother," Mason Le Von said, standing with brother Spencer.

Halloween Week

~Masquerade, masquerade, grab your mask, and don't be late!~

Halloween is the time of year when you can disguise yourself as anything you want. Traditions of Halloween include trick or treating for candy, carving pumpkins, and playing harmless practical jokes. Every year at KCSS, there is a contest for the weirdest, wackiest, and most original costumes. This year we added to school tradition by having Halloween week, where students and teachers participated in Halloween related activities. Some of the fun and games included SAC Karoke in the Cafeteria, Family Feud : Teachers vs. Students, Pumpkin Carving, and Fear Factor. On October 31, there were plenty of ghosts, goblins, and other devious, scary students roaming through the halls. Students showed plenty of Halloween spirit. Way to go!

...Awards and Commencement...

On Thursday, October 9th, 2003, King City students could hear the school band playing "Shannondoah" and "Pomp and Circumstance" not just through the wide lit halls of King but also at Paradise Banquet Hall where Commencement was held.

Each year students who excel in certain areas or subjects earn recognition for all of their hard work.

This year we would like to congratulate all of the students who have won awards for their excellence in King. Although there are too many of you to name, we at King want you to know that you do not go unrecognized.

A short list of recipients include:

STUDENT COUNCIL ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Presented by Jessica Tran President, and Urva Naik Vice-President of King City S.S. Student Council to Tasha Buchanan and Hilary Sutherland.

ROBERTSON MASONIC LODGE W.J. JENNINGS MEMORIAL BURSARIES

Presented by Mr. Bill Fairley, Robertson Masonic Lodge to Lindsay Brusut, Lindsey Rife, Marciel Scott, Megan Amedeo, Mark Benvenuto and Peter Martin

- It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right.
I hope you had the time of your life. -

Three pictures from top to bottom: DAC valedictorian Neelu Sharma giving a thought provoking speech about the teachers and the impressions they have left on students, and the second Charlene McMann, the grade 12 valedictorian gave a more student directed feel to her speech reminding students of some of the funnier moments over the past few years. She does give the camera a quick smile while up on stage. Neelu's last few words seem to be looking around at some familiar faces.

Every year King City has a group of students who excel and push further to focus on their futures and go on to either college, university, or head straight out for the workplace.

This year we would like to recognize the students who graduated from the 2002-2003 school year. This was the double cohort year of DAC's and grade 12 students graduating, making the graduating class larger than usual.

Neelu Sharma (valedictorian for the DAC class) and Charlene McMann (valedictorian for the grade 12 class) both delivered amazing speeches, directing their words to the students, thanking the teachers and our principal, and reminding us of all the wonderful memories we have all experienced in the past 4 or 5 years of attending K.C.S.S

- So take the photographs, and still frames in your mind.
Hang it on a shelf in good health and good time -

Congratulations to all the students from the 2002 - 2003 graduating class. From all of the staff and students at King City Secondary School, we wish you the best of luck in the future.

KISS THE PIG!??

Environment week was launched December 1st to the 5th. The goal of the week was to keep the school squeaky clean with a collection competition.

Numerous staff members volunteered to have their photos attached to garbage cans around the school. At the end of each day, Student Council members collected the garbage and kept a tally of receptical contents.

Ms. Micone led throughout the week although there were a few tense moments for Mr. McGugan and Mr. Walker.

The reward for the students was to witness the Puck Farm "Telus" pig become the centre of attention for tuckered and puckered staff members. Ms. Micone was given the honour of the first kiss as she planted one right on the pig's snout. She was followed by a succession of staff members who made the little piggy's day with kiss after kiss. It was the student body and the remainder of the staff who squealed in delight though.

BELOW CENTRE: Mr. Miller just loves the old pigskin. He just has to remember that this is a live pig not a football. BELOW RIGHT: Mr. Walker is just a farm boy at heart.

Culture Shock was once again celebrated at King Just before the winter break in December. This celebration of culture both ethnic and regional allowed students to share some food and watch some incredible dancing.

The event was organized by Student Council and featured Irish, Indian, and Urban dance. Students and staff were very impressed and had a great time watching the dancing talent of KCSS students.

Carebear!

Couples @ King

Who here at King City hasn't noticed the constant spring fever type atmosphere whenever they walk into the cafe, under stairwells, by the lockers, upstairs.

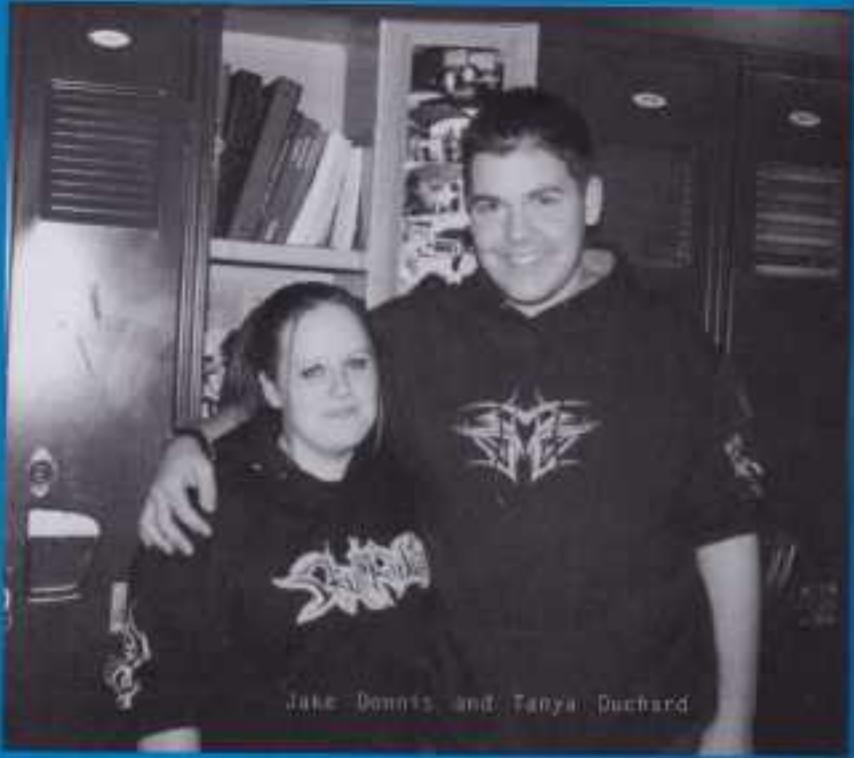

In fact where can't we see couples? They're everywhere, whether they're brand new or have been going out forever. Of course if you don't know if they're new or not, you can always tell by the chorus of "Aww, isn't that the cutest" following them down the hallway.

It would actually be quite fitting to change our mascot from the King city lions to the King city care bears!

Yes, love is as always in the air at King city.

Honourable Mention - Honours Breakfast For Exemplary Students

On May 2, 2003, a breakfast was held for all students of KCSS, who achieved an 80% average or higher in their first semester final and second semester mid-term reports. Various fruits, muffins, bagels, water, and other refreshments were served at the breakfast, courtesy of Ms. Cholyk and her home economics class. Students could hand in their invitations, and during each sitting one invitation would be drawn from a box - the person whose invitation was drawn received a stuffed lion as a prize. All in all, the breakfast was a success. Congratulations to all of the students who succeeded in making the honour roll!

Ms. Cholyk, Ms. Shah, Ms. Pace, Mr. Hewitt, Mrs. Horak, and Ms. Atkinson are proud to serve the students who are successful in school!

These boys enjoy some intelligent conversation during the breakfast.

Katelyn Bennet, Kristiina Aaltonen, Danielle Inglis, Michelle DaCosta, Leslie Nichols, Natalie Galant, Natalya Danyluk, Beverley Peel, Margaret Hyslop, and Elisha Ottaway enjoy their freshly prepared breakfast.

Mr. McGugan offers a congratulatory speech to the honour students, and then presents Andrew Di Girolamo, raffle winner, with a stuffed lion.

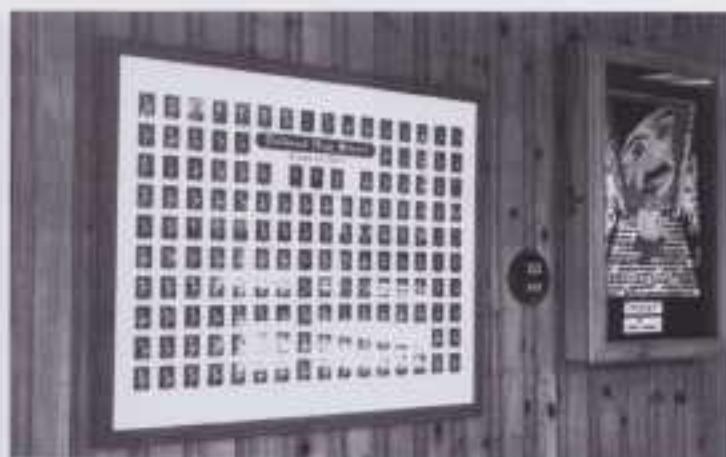

Joey Valente, Coleen McCarthy, Maria Thomaidis, and Jenelle Lutcheon were just four of the wonderful student servers who helped make this breakfast possible.

KCSS Provides Set For New Disney Movie

For the months of June and July 2003, King City Secondary School was transformed into Dellwood High, the highschool on the set of the Disney movie, Confessions Of A Teenage Drama Queen. KCSS students could see the transformation starting in June, when crew members came in to start setting up. Two of King City's own students, Arash Basiri and Lianne Litow, won a chance to be extras. However, due to unforeseen circumstances Arash could not participate in the shoot, but watch for Lianne on the big screen! The movie, starring Lindsay Lohan, will be coming to a theatre near you!

With a closer look, you can see that the students in this graduate composite are actually former students of KCSS - the painting in the display case is also the work of a KCSS student!

King City Secondary or Dellwood High? This temporary sign is one of the changes that KCSS underwent during filming.

Up Close and Personal

An Inside Look...

You can find Mr. McGugan wandering the halls, looking for students, monitoring teachers, and making sure King City Secondary is in proper order. Is there more than just a suit and a walky-talky? Of course there is! Mr. McGugan studied at Central Peel Secondary School, Brampton, and enjoyed such subjects as: English, History, and Geography. Later on, he was accepted to York University and became a very hard working student. After completing his years at York, he taught history, physical education, and was a guidance counsellor. Continuing with guidance in high school, Mr. McGugan decided he wanted to do more, not only to help his many students, but also to help his fellow teachers teach. Pursuing his goal, he later became a Vice-Principal at Thornhill Secondary and Nobleton Senior Public School, and is now our Principal. Outside of school, if he's not helping his two girls in University, you can find him taking a ride on the wild side with his motorcycle, or visiting his inner child, as he writes various children's books. Mr. McGugan is hoping to retire here at King City Secondary School and settle down to continue as a published writer of children's books.

A future principal? Ms. Micone studied at John F. Kennedy, Montreal, during her high school years where she achieved high marks and was at the top of her class. After hours of hard work and dedication, Ms. Micone pursued her teaching career by teaching business. After 25 years of teaching, She wanted to become more involved in school life, teachers, and help a larger student body. Ms. Micone became a Vice-Principal at Doctor John M. Denton for 3 years, and is now spending her third year here at King City. While she's aiming for and hoping to become a principal one day, she enjoys a great work-out after school followed by some quiet reading and sewing.

Making a Difference

King City's Helpers

As time goes on, education puts a tighter strain and becomes more demanding for students. The Leadership and Peer Support Program's purpose is to teach students how to be a leader and help others without crushing their spirits. Students can be found motivating other students without doing damage, but helping build the self-esteem of at risk students. The Leadership and Peer Support Program has been at King City Secondary for 10 years and has improved very much over the time period, with the help of Miss Turner. "The most important thing in the Leadership and Peer Support Program to create an "Oh yah!" for someone who's never had one," -D. Turner.

"I really enjoy helping others, because it teaches me and also teaches them," Albert Lapl, Food and Nutrition.

"Albert is always a great help when we don't know what we're doing," -Matthew Diamond.

Many students have been affected by the program in an extremely positive way. "It helps me have direction and improves my organizational skills..." Stacey Marshall. "It was a cool experience, he was a nice guy, and my Peer Tutor really helped me," -Justin Ferraro. As Miss Turner helps her students tutor, in all subjects, she has immense plans to change and further develop the program to a Co-operative Education Program so more students can enjoy and benefit from it.

"Once I've become a Peer Tutor, I've realized being a teacher is harder than it looks," -Marco Pascucci, Science. "He's helped me a lot & he's done a great job!" -Matt Marchese.

"It gives us a great feeling inside..." -Kimberly Galvez, Tejal Patel.

"It's great knowing that I'm having an effect on my fellow peers," -Jas Matharu, Drama. "Jas helps whenever you need him, he's a great guy!" -Marc Fortan, Chris Martello.

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST: OUTDOOR ED TRIP

Mr. Weber's two Outdoor Ed classes took a trip using all of their survival skills, to rough it out in Algonquin Park, May 29th-June 2nd, 2003. It was a great experience for all. Ms. Linkewich along with Mr. Sebastian, Mr. Garner and Mr. Weber accompanied us, to make sure we all kept in line. We split into two groups because there was a large number of students. Mr. Weber and Mr. Garner led the first group and Ms. Linkewich and Mr. Sebastian led the second group. The teacher's alternated between us so that we all get the opportunity to be led by each of them.

We had to portage and canoe a lot. This was a great deal of work. Somedays it was cold and wet and brought our moods down but we still tried to keep our spirits high. Sometimes the portages were so long as well, but most of the time we had great weather and great attitudes, that we could conquer anything. I know many of us didn't think we'd make it, but with each other's positive support and encouragement, we made it through.

The trip was an awesome experience! I had the pleasure of going on it, and wouldn't trade it for the world. It was great to have Mr. Garner on the trip with us since it was going to be his last year at the school. He was lots of fun; Thank you Mr. Garner.

We got on each other's nerves at times; but with all the new things we learned about each other, we have memories to last a lifetime.

She works hard for the credits: Co-op

Mr. Shepherd, Mrs. Gotter, and Mr. Honey are the co-op department at KCSS. When approached, they had the following to say about Co-op:

Co-op is a program that combines in-school courses with out-of-school work experience. It is one of the best ways to get work experience while earning credits, as well as making sure you're heading in the right direction for you. In order to take co-op, you need to be a Grade 11 or 12 student taking a course in the field you want to get work experience in. There are many success stories about students being offered positions at their co-op placements to be continued after the semester or summer's end, as well as many funny memories. You don't even have to have a placement in mind, just talk to co-op and tell them what you want to do! Some placements are art galleries, elementary schools, hospitals, TV/radio, Museum, historical sites, law enforcement, veterinary office, physiotherapy, auto mechanics, and many more!

TOD HOT TO HANDLE. That was the case for many Europeans who suffered through a record heat wave that scorched the continent in August. Some 35,000 people died, mostly the elderly and chronically ill. In France alone, where temperatures soared to more than 40°C—and remained at those searing heights for two weeks—nearly 15,000 people died. JOEL ROBINE/REUTERS

PEACE AT LAST? Since their partition in 1947, the predominantly Hindu India and mainly Muslim Pakistan have gone to war three times and were on the brink of nuclear war in 2002. But major efforts, including historic meetings between the countries' two leaders, have inspired hope that stable peace may be at hand. One of the key roadblocks is the region of Kashmir—two-thirds of which is under Indian control even though a majority of its inhabitants are Muslim. AP/WIDEWORLD

CHARGED . . . WITH BEING STUPID. Kirk Jones of Canton, Mich., dove head first and is thought to be the first person to survive Niagara Falls without any protective device. After plunging 54 m down the Canadian side—known as Horseshoe Falls—Jones, 40, was apprehended by police and fined $4,000 for illegally performing a stunt. Witnesses said Jones was smiling in the moments before taking his giant leap of faith. WIDEWORLD

OPENING THEIR WALLETS. Tripling U.S. spending on AIDS programs overseas, George Bush pledged $15 billion over five years to treat and prevent the spread of the killer disease. According to the United Nations, 42 million people are infected with HIV worldwide; 29 million in Africa since 1980. Five million around the world have died from AIDS, a number that's expected to rise to a total of 30 million by 2010. AP/WIDEWORLD

END OF A DICTATOR. Nine months after the fall of Baghdad, disgraced Iraqi dictator Saddam Hussein was captured in a spider hole, 100 km north of the capital. Known for his opulent palaces, Saddam was in squalor—a filthy two-room shack—he was armed with a pistol but offered no resistance during capture by U.S. forces. Categorized as a POW, Saddam will most likely be tried for crimes against humanity. AP/WIDEWORLD

ARE YOU THERE? Unmanned rovers Spirit and Opportunity caused excitement back home with photos they sent back from their visit to the red planet. The main purpose of the Mars mission is to search for signs of water—and Opportunity knocked. The rover found water-sediment rocks, showing that life may have existed on the planet.

HAVEL AMID TRAGEDY. Nine days after a deadly earthquake struck Iran, a 97-year-old woman was pulled from the rubble—and asked for a cup of tea. Though Sisaneh Mazandarani weighed less than 30 kg, she was in good physical condition—despite going without water for more than a week. Sadly, Mazandarani was one of only a handful of survivors of the earthquake that measured 6.6 on the Richter scale and shattered the ancient city of Bam. More than 30,000 people died and over 15,000 were injured.

WHAT A PARTY. About 500,000 people crowded St. Peter's Square to celebrate Pope John Paul II's silver anniversary—one of the longest reigns atop the Catholic church in its 2,000-year history. The 83-year-old pontiff, known for his conservative views, is credited with playing a major role in the downfall of Communism, is the only Pope to set foot in a Mosque and was a vocal opponent of the war in Iraq.

ALL DECKED OUT. Everything about the Queen Mary 2 is gargantuan. It's the largest (137,000 tonnes), longest (345 m), tallest (70 m) and widest (39 m) passenger liner ever. It has 1,250 crew to serve 2,600 passengers. Equipped with the biggest movie theatre on water, a planetarium, casino and five swimming pools, it's no wonder the Queen Mary is also the most expensive cruise vessel at more than $1 billion.

ROYAL OVERTHROW. Throw pillows and wall colours were the last thing on style Queen Martha Stewart's mind after being convicted of conspiracy, obstruction of justice and two counts of making false statements in connection with the 2001 sale of her shares in a medical technology company. Stewart, who was found to have benefitted from insider information, faces up to 20 years in jail, but will appeal the conviction.

ONLY IN HOLLYWOOD. Screen star Arnold Schwarzenegger muscled his way into politics by becoming governor of California in a recall election. The 56-year-old Republican defeated Democratic incumbent Gov. Gray Davis and 133 other candidates, ranging from veteran politicians to former sitcom celebrities. When he promised, "I'll be back!" in Terminator, nobody could have guessed this.

STILL PACKING THEM IN. Nearly 450,000 people braved temperatures that soared above 30° C at a Toronto airfield to watch the legendary Rolling Stones headline Canada's largest-ever rock concert. An effort to rejuvenate tourism in Toronto following the SARS outbreak, the show sparked international media attention for the city and also featured AC/DC, Justin Timberlake and Blue Rodeo. SARS killed 44 Canadians and inflicted $500 million damage on the Canadian economy. PHOTO BY CLAUDIO REYES

WHO TURNED OFF THE LIGHTS. Fifty million people in Ontario and seven U.S. states were left in darkness after their highly interconnected power grid crashed last August. While the affected states largely regained generating capacity within 24 hours, millions of Ontarians were forced into a stringent conservation mode for a couple of weeks because eight of the province's 12 operational nuclear reactors were forced into full shutdown.

MEMORIES UP IN FLAMES. Towns and cities had to be evacuated as so 2,500 forest fires raised havoc throughout British Columbia. The fires, which damaged more than 286,000 hectares, will drain $545 million from the province's budget. In Kelowna alone, 238 homes burned down and 30,000 people had to be relocated. PHOTO BY GUY LAWRENCE

DESTRUCTIVE PATH. What a weather year for the Maritimes, and Halifax in particular. First hurricane Juan's 160 km/h winds uprooted trees that killed a pair of cars killing two people in the city. The Category Two storm, one of the most damaging in Nova Scotia history, left about 300,000 homes and businesses without power for days. Then came winter and a record blizzard dropping 90 cm on Halifax and forcing states of emergency in Nova Scotia and P.E.I. (CP/Mike Hough)

DOLLAR SPIKES. The Canadian dollar toyed with the 80-cent mark against the U.S. greenback and rose by a stunning 22 per cent in 2003. Though it increased our purchasing power and thus made imports cheaper, certain manufactured products and other exports became much more expensive—and less attractive on the foreign market. (AP/Wide World Photos)

CRAZY COW HYSTERIA. Mad cow disease was detected in a single cow on an Alberta farm in May 2003, shutting Canadian beef out of the U.S. market and causing $3.3 billion in damages. And as things were starting to get somewhat back on track, another infected Canadian cow was discovered in January, further crippling the fragile industry. (AP/Lawrence Hurley)

ON THE FIRING LINE. While Canada opted to stay out of Iraq, Ottawa pledged 1,900 troops to the NATO-led operation in Afghanistan. About 1,700 Canadian troops were deployed in Kabul, where seven members of the brain force had been killed in the line of duty by the end of February 2004. (CP/Chris Wattie)

FAMILY FEUD. The sparring between former prime minister Jean Chrétien and Paul Martin continued all year until Chrétien finally stepped down, making room for his former finance minister to take the reins. Soon after moving into 24 Sussex Drive, Martin conducted a major shakeup of Chrétien's cabinet and confronted a major scandal over spending to promote national unity.

LET THE GAMES BEGIN. Vancouver-Whistler squeaked out a narrow 56-53 victory over Pyeongchang, South Korea to win the 2010 Winter Olympics. BOOK WORLD LOSES A QUIET GIANT. Carol Shields, 68, one of Canada's most successful writers, succumbed to complications from breast cancer. The former Winnipeg resident, who died in Victoria, wrote 10 novels including the 1993 Pulitzer Prize winning The Stone Diaries. © AP/Wide World Photos

BRUTAL BEATING. Iranian-born Canadian photojournalist Zahra Kazemi was beaten to death in an Iranian jail, widening a rift between the two nations. The 54-year-old Montrealer was arrested while reporting on the underground pro-democracy movement outside a prison. An Iranian Intelligence Ministry agent has been charged, but pleaded innocent, to causing Kazemi's death. © AP/Wide World Photos

BEWARE BOY. Five-year-old Robbie Thompson has brought a lot. To fix veins in his heart that became堵—placing him at risk of a heart attack—he received a heart transplant at Toronto's Hospital for Sick Children, his second in three years. His first came when he was just 18 months old, but doctors are confident that they've fixed the problem.

KILLER THAN AN ANNOYANCE. With nearly 800 cases last year, Saskatchewan was the hardest hit by the West Nile virus. In fact, six of the 10 Canadians killed by the mosquito-born virus came from the province. Bug spray sales were up across the country as people tried to protect themselves from the potentially deadly insects.

POINTING THE FINGER. A judicial inquiry has been established to get to the bottom of the Maher Arar affair. After landing in New York City en route home to Ottawa following an overseas holiday, the 34-year-old Canadian was held in custody for 13 days and then shipped off to Syria by U.S. officials, who apparently did not inform Canadian authorities of the deportation. In Syria, where Arar was born, he claims that he was tortured and accused of having ties to al-Qaeda. He remained imprisoned in Syria for a year until sustained public pressure, led by his wife, Monia Mazigh, secured his return to Canada.

POT LAWS MELLOWED OUT. Canada became the first country to distribute pot to individuals who were deemed to have a medical right to use it. The government is appealing the ruling, but will allow doctors to dispense seeds or mature plants at $5 a gram. In a separate ruling, Ottawa decriminalized possession of small amounts of pot, making it a finable offence.

TO WED, OR NOT TO WED. Widespread controversy greeted provincial court rulings in Ontario and B.C. legalizing same-sex marriage. Most churches opposed the decision, but public opinion overall is slightly favourable. Meanwhile, thousands of gay couples have tied the knot, and many American couples have flooded across the border to take advantage of the more relaxed law. Many Canadians argue that changing the definition of marriage—from a union between a man and woman, to one between two people—uproots a fundamental tenet of society. Others say equality under the law should include gay marriages. The Supreme Court is expected to have the final say on the matter.

Music

HARD TO LOOK ANY MORE UP: Shania Twain hosted the Junos, had two major TV specials and received a slew of awards (including Artist of the Year at the 2003 Junos). Now, CBC is making a movie on her life story, so far. And Up!, the 38-year-old Timmins, Ont., native's latest CD, has sold more than nine million copies.

A LEGEND RETURNS. After five years away from the music business, Sarah McLachlan—best known as the founder of the all-female tour Lili Fair—brought her haunting voice back to the masses with Afterglow. A fitting title considering the 36-year-old Vancouverite gave birth to her first child, a daughter named India, during her hiatus.

TOUGH ACT TO FOLLOW. The world's most famous skater-girl, Avril Lavigne, 19, is putting together the follow-up CD to her 2002 smash hit Let Go, which sold nearly five million copies. The pop-rock from Nepean, Ont., is working with former Evanescence guitarist Ben Moody and singer-songwriter Chantal Kreviazuk on her sophomore release—and hopes to have it on shelves late in 2004.

(AP Photo/David Zalubowski)

HOW TO MAKE A POP STAR. Following the incredible success of American Idol, which spawned singers Kelly Clarkson and Daughtry, producers of Canadian Idol began the search for our first music idol. Ben Mulroney hosted the talent show that attracted as many as three million viewers, the most-watched Canadian TV show in history. In the end, the big winner was Ryan Malcolm, 25, a singing waiter from Kingston, Ont.

(CP Photo/Brian Carson)

ROCK ON. Nickelback is not the critics' favourite band, but the Calgary-based rockers have earned an incredible tan following with their straight-ahead rock style. The Long Road earned them a pair of 2004 Grammy nominations—Best Rock Record and Best Rock Song for Someday.

PRETTY FRESH IDEA. Winnipeg-based rapper Fresh J.E. is a pretty unlikely candidate for a Grammy nomination. In fact, few Canadians know who he is since his gospel-infused hip-hop album was not even distributed in Canada until after being nominated in the rock/gospel category. The one-time pimp and drug pusher, whose real name is Rob Wilson, is the first Canadian rapper to earn a Grammy nomination.

OF THE GRAMMYS. The talented actress-singer-songwriter Beyoncé Knowles has got the can do it all—and she's at it. Knowles has also landed pretty big endorsement—including Tommy Hilfiger, Nike and Pepsi. The Houston-native's debut solo album, Born in the USA, spent 2003 every location at radio stations and in the clubs. Not to mention Grammy awards, including a GRAMMY album. (AP Photo/Mark J. Terrill)

YOU IN COURT. Downloading has become pretty serious business. The Canadian Recording Industry Association has asked the courts to order Internet providers to give the names of 29 file sharers in the lead-up to lawsuits against those who share a large number of music files on the net. In the U.S., the Recording Industry Association of America has filed lawsuits against nearly 100 Americans. On-line piracy cost the industry an estimated $4 billion in 2003. (AP Photo/Brennan Linsley)

A SECRET NO MORE.

The White Stripes were once indie music darlings from Detroit, but the huge success of Elephant in 2003 propelled lead singer and guitarist Jack White and drummer Meg White (they are divorced) into celebrity status. Jack's relationship with Oscar winner Renée Zellweger also kept him in the gossip columns. (AP Photo/Chris Antosik)

IS SHE? ISN'T SHE?

Britney Spears took weird behaviour to a new level. In early January, the 22-year-old pop princess married small town Louisiana childhood friend Jason Alexander, but quickly had the marriage annulled. Spears may be just 22, but In the Zone is her fifth album. (AP Photo/Jeffrey D. Allred)

FROM THE DARKNESS. Goth-inspired Arkansas rockers Evanescence made the big time with Fallen, which earned them the Grammy for Best New Artist. Even though Ben Moody, a founding member and guitarist, quit the band, singer Amy Lee kept things together and rode the success of the single Bring Me To Life, which was also featured on the soundtrack of Daredevil, starring Ben Affleck and Jennifer Garner. (AP Photo/John Raoux)

THREE TIMES GOLDEN.

The flamboyant hip-hop duo OutKast won three Grammy awards—including Album of the Year for Speakerboxxx/The Love Below, marking the first time an R&B group has won the award. The duo's two-disc release also won them Best Rap Album, included on their smash hit is the chart-topping single Hey Ya!, which won a Grammy for best urban/alternative performance. (AP Photo/Chris Pizzello)

ALL GROWN UP.

Justin Timberlake made a smart move by breaking free from the chains of boy-band NSYNC. His first solo album, Justified, earned the 23-year-old two Grammy awards—and Charlie's Angels Cameron Diaz was almost always on the arm of the one-time Mouseketeer. Read all about Timberlake in his autobiography, including the Janet Jackson Super Bowl fiasco, due out in the fall. (AP Photo/Chris Pizzello)

IF YOU CAN'T STEAL 'EM, BUY 'EM. With the threat of lawsuits hanging over the heads of on-line pirates, thousands turned to Web sites like Puretracks.com, which offer a legal alternative. At 99 cents per song, the Toronto-based firm did pretty brisk business. Seeing that success, Archambaultnk.ca became the second Canadian firm on the scene, with a French-language site. (MANUEL SOTHEY PHOTO)

LITTLE GUYS PACKS SOME PUNCH, TOO. Apple's new iPod mini is business card-sized, has 4GB of memory, holds 1,000 songs and will be priced at about $325. Of course you can stick with the somewhat larger—albeit still hand-held—original that's slightly more expensive but holds a whopping 10,000 songs. You might need that type of variety if, for instance, you're planning to travel around the world three times. (MANUEL SOTHEY PHOTO)

SOUND LIKE AVRIL OR NICKELBACK. Or at least sing along. PlayStation 2's Karaoke Revolution is the first interactive karaoke video game, giving aspiring pop stars a chance to show what they've got. The game uses a voice analyzer to rate the player's performance. It might kick-start your career—or bring those big dreams crashing down. (MANUEL SOTHEY PHOTO)

CAN YOU EVER HAVE ENOUGH POCKETS? It's no wonder cargo pants are still all the rage—especially for the guys. From your MP3 player, cellphone, Personal Digital Assistants (PDA) and wallet, you have a lot to carry around. Until the man purse becomes more commonplace among the teen set, cargo wear will remain a popular choice for many. (MANUEL SOTHEY AND ANN HARRIS)

TRUCKER CRAZE. Pop star Justin Timberlake started the craze when he wore a Von Dutch hat to Grammy night parties in 2003. Other celebrities quickly followed suit—including Paris Hilton and Nicole Richie on TV's The Simple Life, making the truckers' hat a Von Dutch Originals also hawks jeans, T-shirts and motorcycle jackets, but it's the wide-brimmed, foam-front truckers' hat (which cost upwards of $160) that has caused a consumer stir. (MANUEL SOTHEY PHOTO)

Television

WAY TOO STRANGE FOR FICTION. When it came to reality TV, celebrities took centre stage. The Simple Life sent hotel heiress Paris Hilton and Nicole Richie, the daughter of pop-star Lionel Richie, to a farm in the deep south. Punk'd gave "it" boy Ashton Kutcher a platform to pull pranks on unsuspecting celebs. Donald Trump went in search of an assistant in The Apprentice. And don't forget Newlyweds, which opened the front doors of pop-singers Jessica Simpson's and Nick Lachey's home during their first year of wedded bliss. Survivor was back for another season—some say its best yet—and there was no shortage of shows on which contestants set out in search of love: The Bachelor, The Bachelorette, The Next! Joe Millionaire and Average Joe.

If the sappy scenes in those shows didn't make you sick, Fear Factor—with its disgusting taste tests—probably did. Live maggots, anyone?

GUARDIAN INVASION. The set of Emmy-award winning TV drama 24 is brimming with Canadians. The star, Kiefer Sutherland, who plays federal agent Jack Bauer, is from Saint John, N.B.—native to Sutherland, and co-star Claire Danes, who has the role Bauer's daughter Kim, hails from

NOW YOU CAN GO OUT THURSDAY NIGHT.

After a decade of incredibly successful seasons, the cast of Friends are calling it quits. But don't worry fans because it's highly unlikely that you've seen the last of these guys. Who knows, if we're really lucky, maybe there will be six spinoffs... next

HAVOC ON PARLIAMENT HILL. Rick Mercer, a master of Canadian satire, has returned to prime time. On CBC's Rick Mercer's Monday Report, he uses many of the old tricks he perfected during his days on This Hour Has 22 Minutes, and later on Talking to Americans. Never mind the Opposition parties, Mercer could become Prime Minister Paul Martin's greatest threat.

THE LAUGHTER FADES TO BLACK. Tragedy struck 8 Simple Rules for Dating my Teenage Daughter when the show's 54-year-old star, John Ritter (who played Paul Hennessy) collapsed on the set and later died of heart complications. In an attempt to fill the void, Just Shoot Me!'s David Spade joined the 8 Simple Rules cast as C.J., Kate's (Kathy Sagal) pesky nephew.

Movies

TO THE VICTOR, GOES THE SPOILS. Director Peter Jackson's third epic instalment of J.R.R. Tolkien's Lord of the Rings series cleaned up at the Academy Awards and the box office. The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King, which cashed in with US$351 million in just seven weeks, won best picture, best director and nine other statuettes for a record-tying total of 11. (PHOTO: WENN.COM PHOTOS)

A VERY TOUCHY SUBJECT. Mel Gibson's The Passion of the Christ is creating more controversy and buzz than any film in years. Focusing on Jesus's final 12 hours on earth, Gibson has been slammed for the movie's excessive blood and gore, and alleged anti-Semitism. The controversy has divided church officials and critics alike. Nevertheless, the film put up the second-best ever five-day figures for a movie opening with ticket sales of US$117.5 million. Only The Lord of the Rings: The Return of the King at US$124 million grossed more. (FROM PICTURES)

AUDIENCES TAKE THE BAIT. And when the stars are this cute, who wouldn't? Crowds poured into theatres to watch Finding Nemo, the animated comic adventures of the fretful clownfish Marlin (voiced by Albert Brooks) and his young son Nemo (Alexander Gould). Voted best animated film at the Oscars, Finding Nemo was also one of the top-selling DVDs of 2003. (DISNEY/PIXAR)

AHOY, JOHNNY. People's Sexiest Man Alive, Johnny Depp (above), gets ugly for his role as rogue pirate Jack Sparrow in Pirates of the Caribbean: The Curse of the Black Pearl. Wearing heavy black eyeliner and speaking with a drunk-like slur, Depp's character and Will Turner (Orlando Bloom) try and stop a ship of dangerous pirates led by Captain Barbosa (Geoffrey Rush) and recover lost treasure. (WALT DISNEY PICTURES)

A PERFECT SEND-OFF. Satire or drama, The Barbarian Invasions is a winner for Denys Arcand. The story: family and friends of a cancer patient converge on an overcrowded Quebec hospital to share in the final days of his life. This bittersweet, often funny movie won Montreal director Arcand an Oscar for best foreign film at the 2004 Academy Awards and received two prizes at the 2003 Cannes Film Festival, including best screenplay. (FROM PICTURES)

NOT EASY BEING GOD. Just ask Bruce Nolan (Carey). After Nolan is given God's powers in Almighty, things get a little chaotic when he tries to everyone what they pray for. The real test is his relationship with girlfriend Gracie (Jennifer Aniston) as he loses during his ultimate power trip. Finally, Bruce proves he's only human.

DANCE TIMES 50. Adam Sandler and Drew Barrymore, who lit up the big screen when they paired in The Wedding Singer, are back with another romantic comedy. In 50 First Dates, Henry Roth (Sandler) is a man living in Hawaii who falls for Lucy (Barrymore). The problem is that Lucy suffers from short-term memory loss and can't remember meeting him. Henry has to woo her every day with the hope that she'll fall in love with him—again, and again and again.

SCHOOL MASTERPIECE. Failed rock star Dewey Finn (Jack Black) gets tossed from his band, and needs cash fast. So, in School of Rock, he scams himself a gig as a substitute teacher and decides to teach a class of school kids how to play rock 'n' roll. His goal? To win a local band contest and rejuvenate his own failing career. Hilarity ensues.

TOILET HUMOUR AT ITS BEST. Steve Stifler (Seann William Scott, far left) and the American Pie gang have returned for American Wedding. Centered around the wedding of Jim (Jason Biggs, centre) and Michelle (Alyson Hannigan), the usual series of hijinks prevail. If the first couple of American Pie flicks grossed you out, beware. This one really takes the cake.

CAN'T LIVE UP TO THE HYPE. While the crowds poured into theatres to watch Neo (Keanu Reeves) and the rest of the crew in The Matrix—Reloaded, and The Matrix—Revolutions (both released in 2003) most left disappointed. Sure, the special effects were cool, but after the outpouring of praise following the original Matrix in 1999, the two sequels offered up good action, but fell flat as far as plot was concerned.

MARKET REACTION

MUTANTS TIMES TWO. The mutants band together in X2 to fight their common enemy: Gen. William Stryker (Brian Cox), who plans to destroy them. Wolverine (Hugh Jackman, above) leads a pack of mutants played by a star-studded cast including Halle Berry, Patrick Stewart, Anna Paquin and Canadian Shawn Ashmore as Iceman.

Sports

THE HEIR APPARENT? Not since Michael Jordan entered the league 20 years ago has a rookie been more highly touted than Cleveland Cavaliers guard LeBron James. The No. 1 pick in the NBA's 2003 draft even signed a US$90 million Nike shoe deal before his first game. James, 19, joined the NBA straight out of high school, but by scoring 20 points a game has proven he can play with the big boys. AP/Wide World

JUSTICE, AT LAST. It took a while for Beckie Scott, but it was well worth the wait. Nearly two years after placing third at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, the cross-country skier was awarded the gold medal. The 29-year-old from Vermilion, Alta., won the top prize after the two Russians who finished ahead of her tested positive for drugs and were disqualified. CP/Barry Gray

FIREBALLER TAKES TOP PRIZE. With 55 saves in as many attempts, Los Angeles Dodgers hard-throwing closer Eric Gagné was the National League's Cy Young Award winner. This 27-year-old Montrealer is only the second Canadian to win the major leagues' top pitching prize—Chicago Cubs Ferguson Jenkins from Chatham, Ont., won in 1971. AP/Wide World

WISE BEYOND THEIR YEARS. They were the second youngest team in soccer's 2003 World Cup, but Canada's national women's squad didn't let that get in the way of a strong fourth place showing. The young but feisty club was the first Canadian team, men's or women's, to win a World Cup game and the first to reach the playoffs, where they were stopped 3-1 by the U.S. squad in the battle for third place. AP/Wide World

ESKS GET LAST LAUGH. The Edmonton Eskimos enacted revenge by defeating the Montreal Alouettes 34-22 in the 2003 Grey Cup. The win, on Saskatchewan's Taylor Field, made up for a home field loss to the Alouettes in the 2002 championship game. Edmonton running back Mike Pringle (above) gained 70 yards in the contest, becoming the all-time Grey Cup rushing leader with 393 yards in four games. CP/Barry Gray

CAPTURING POLE POSITION. After 13 years as a pro, Toronto's Paul Tracy won his first CART drivers' championship. The 34-year-old took home the checkered flag in seven races, including wins at the Toronto and Vancouver Maxis. Tracy became only the second Canadian to win the star trophy—Quebec's Jacques Villeneuve won in 1995. CP/Barry Gray

WHY THE GAME WAS MEANT TO BE PLAYED. Not even -20°C cold wind could wipe the smiles from the faces of the 56,000 fans at Toronto's Commonwealth Stadium who came to watch the first ever Canadian NFL game. Still, the main attraction was Wayne Gretzky in an Oilers jersey for the pre-game legends exhibition contest, with Guy Lafleur and Mark Messier. (CP Photo/Ryan) ■

MR. PERFECTION. Oakville, Ont., native Mike Vanderjagt has booted his way into the NFL record books. During the 2003 campaign, the Indianapolis Colts place-kicker went 37-for-37, proving that the extra point after is truly automatic. He also set an NFL record with 41 consecutive field goals. Vanderjagt, 33, bounced among Saskatchewan, Hamilton and Toronto in the CFL before joining the Colts in 1996. (AP Wirephoto)

NHL CRASH SHOCKWAVES. Atlanta Thrasher superstar right-winger Dany Heatley returned to the ice in January, four months after suffering serious injuries in a car crash that killed his 25-year-old friend and teammate Dan Snyder from Elmira, Ont. Heatley, 23, who was raised in Calgary, was charged with vehicular homicide after he lost control of his Ferrari, which led to the fatal car crash. He faces up to 15 years in prison. (AP Wirephoto)

LEFTY THAT COULD. Standing just five-feet, eight-inches, Bright's Ont.-native Mike Weir is no giant. But he is carrying around some big numbers these days. Last year, Weir made history when he won the Masters (beating the Green Jacket from defending champ Tiger Woods, above), winning the first Canadian to win one of golf's major championships. Weir won two other tournaments, finishing fifth on the 2003 money list with $10.3 million. He is continuing his hot play in 2004 and won the Abu Dhabi Open in February. (AP Wirephoto)

FEMALE TIGER. Michelle Wie is only 14, but she can drive a golf ball 300 yards, further than most grown men. Following in the footsteps of Annika Sorenstam, who last year was the first woman in 58 years to play in a PGA event, the six-foot-tall Wie took her swings at a men's tour stop in January in Hawaii—and missed the cut by just a stroke. The comparisons to a young Tiger Woods were inevitable. (AP Wirephoto)

FLASH, SHE'S A STAR. In 12.53 seconds, Perdita Felicien went from unheralded sprinter from Pickering, Ont., to a world-class hurdler. The 19-year-old became the first Canadian woman to win gold at an international meet when she won the 100-m hurdles at the World Championships in Paris. She followed that up this year by winning the 60-m hurdles at the indoor Championships. But here's proof Felicien has really made it—she has a shoe deal with Nike. (Athlon Press)

ALWAYS LOOK YOUR BEST. Because you never know who may be taking your picture. Hewlett-Packard in Britain has created eyeglasses with a built-in camera that constantly photographs everything the wearer sees. Meanwhile, camera phones are becoming all the craze. Now you can snap off a pic, and use the instant messaging feature on your phone to send it to all your friends. Experts worry about privacy implications. No kidding. —ANTHONY

BEIJING . . . WE HAVE LIFT OFF. After 11 years of planning, China launched its first piloted spacecraft—becoming the third nation after the former Soviet Union and the U.S. to send humans into space. China's first taikonaut is Yang Liwei, a 38-year-old fighter pilot. After multiple satellite launch failures during the '80s and '90s, Chinese officials kept details of the mission secret. But they did release a song to mark the historic occasion called, guess what, Flying. —ANTHONY

THIS MESSAGE COULD SELF-DESTRUCT. The Mydoom computer virus flooded Internet users' inboxes in 214 countries to become what some experts claim was the fastest-spreading e-mail virus in history. A variant of the virus that takes aim at Microsoft's Web site promises the software giant to issue a US$250,000 reward for information leading to the arrest of the mad scientist who created the bug. —ANTHONY

HATE NEEDLES? Then you might soon be in luck. Replacing the needle-administered flu vaccination in many parts of the U.S. is a far less annoying nasal spray. The spray, which contains a live—albeit weakened—form of the flu, is only recommended for healthy people between five and 49. It's not expected in Canada until 2007.

—ANTHONY

AND IT EVEN PARKS ITSELF. Japanese car maker Toyota was able to cut the price of its gas-electric Prius to about $30,000, sparking a worldwide buying spree. Global Prius sales targets for 2004 have skyrocketed from 76,000 to 130,000. And for an extra $2,900, you get the Intelligent Parking Assist program, which makes parallel parking a breeze. The car actually parks itself after you have defined where you want to park on a computerized screen. —ANTHONY

Maclean's, Canada's weekly newsmagazine with more than three million readers every week, is a tremendous resource for students and their families. From natural resources to international news, to science and technology, to health and education, business, entertainment and more, Maclean's covers what matters to Canadians quickly, reliably, intelligently, and with a Canadian perspective.

In addition to the magazine, Maclean's publishes the annual Guide to Canadian Universities and offers a comprehensive In-Class program for educators and their students. ## MOST MEMORABLE MOMENTS

New Kids on the Block

High school is whatever you make of it; it can be the greatest experience of your life or it can be the worst. Going from grade eight to grade nine is a huge transition. Grade nine is a challenging year, socially and academically. New students often struggle with finding their classes, getting on the right bus, opening their lockers, and most famously getting use to the busy hallways. It can be very nerve-racking because there are so many unfamiliar faces. Roc King Camp helped these freshmen get to know one another and develop friendships. Although the first couple of days can be rough, by the end of the month grade nines don't feel like miner niners anymore.

Wonder Years

On to grade 10, the relaxed year. These students can now successfully navigate the school and easily find their own locker, as well as their friends'. They have more confidence, and they're able to function easily without being part of an entourage. They also no longer fear any silly high school myths like bazing, and they no longer have to watch out, "just in case".

If the older students gave our grade 10s a hard time last year, it's over now. Most of our seniors have more important things to do this year, so now they're home free, free to walk in the school as a fully independent student, like the rest of us.

Who's the Boss?

Grade 11 is the year that everyone realizes it is just a matter of time until their friends start going their own way and start new lives. They're starting to feel the pressure socially and academically. It's time to start cracking open the books and getting down to business. People start discovering who they are not only as a student, but as a person. Everywhere, relationships are blooming, and new friendships are forming. Grade 11 is a year of self-discovery and transition. So, who's the boss? They are, of course!

DAYs OF OUR LIVES

Grade 12's are about to leave the school. They have been here for four long years, but it's been worthwhile. Whether it is hanging with long-time friends or partying it up, you can always see them with smiles on their faces.

Wondering what school they are going to attend, whether it is College or University, or heading out into the work force, there are many decisions that need to be made.

It's the time when students reflect on what's happened throughout the years and look back at all the memories that have been created throughout high school. Whether it is Roc King Camp or Semi-Formal, the good times will be remembered forever.

Top: You can always find this cute couple together. Nora Kirov & Dan Perry are inseparable.

TIPS ON SURVIVING HIGH SCHOOL

- Beware of the yellow King City water. Drink with CAUTION!
- Don't be afraid to push past people in the hall who walk too slow. Chances are if you don't you'll never get to class
- Don't display public signs of affection.... go behind the stairs
- When opening the hall doors make sure to swing as hard as you can, to ensure equal pain on the other side
- Overalls are the number one fad, so y'all betta get'a pair, ya hear!
- Don't worry, it's okay to study for an exam at the last minute; you can always glue cheat notes to the bottom of your shoe. (Whoops, I mean cheating's wrong, study hard kids)
- You're not cool until you ditch prom for the Schomberg smash up derby
- You won't be a true jock until you slap your teammate's butt for "encouragement"
- Eat poutine, poutine, and more poutine!!!
- If a teacher asks "why aren't you in class?" say you have a spare...even if you're in grade 9, when you can't have a spare
- Make nice with your teachers because that may just ensure you good marks in their grade books
- Drink lots of milk, it will make you big and strong so you can conquer those mean bullies
- You can't park in the school parking lot unless you have a pick-up truck. It's a requirement to get a parking pass
- If the fire alarm sounds, you better run for your life, chances are it's not a drill!
- The morning music isn't just something for you enjoyment, it's meant to make you run to class as fast as your little legs can take you
- Get involved in as much extracurricular activities as possible, that is your mark that you will have left behind in the school

Christine and Patricia were a big part of our lives. They brought happiness, comfort and love to each day. Both girls were unique in their own way and that is what made them special - laughing, joking, energy and craziness! They were truly God sent angels who touched our hearts. They will be forever loved and missed. They will never be forgotten.

We love them and miss them so much!

*Both girls were always so energetic and said things that always made us laugh:
"Okay there buddy, are you serious, pinky swear, oh yeah, Shut-up, you pervert, I got the magic stick, Damn hommie in high school you was the man hommie, to the window to the walls...
cheloopas, it's like d-d-d-damn hommie, damn

Student Council is the reason that K.C.S.S. has any activities during and after school. The White Out dance, Halloween Week and Valentine's Week happened all because of this group of fun oriented students. Everyone has their own position in the club, such as President, Vice President, Treasurer. With each member doing their part, nothing can go wrong.

Student Council

Mr. Schoenherrdt, Tonya Streuel, Carolynne McRitchie, Serrish Waseem, Meghan Mintz, Andrew Rolfe, Alyssa Soull, Andrew Distefano, Ms. Linkewich, Ali Mumford, Judy-Anne Peterson, Sam Emille, Jay Choi, Jessica Tran, Dianne Kingston, Steph Pasquale, Urva Naik, Umar Vu, Natalie Constantinou, Absent: Jo-Anne Peterson, Carmen Grillo, Robert Cortese, Tiffany Noraz, DECA is a club that helps students develop their problem solving and business skills. At a typical meeting, each student or group of students is given a market problem (which they would encounter in a part time job environment). They then have ten minutes to solve or propose a solution.

Deca

In alphabetical order:
Zafra Ahmed, Marie Buono, Aliza Chatur, Alexandre Dix, Justine Giancola, Graeme Jones, Lauren McCarthy, Anumita Hazunder, Seemitha Hazunder, Urva Naik, Danny Quach, Anton Ryjnik, Rajoul Sekhon, Joti Singh, Jason Sukhu, Annie Supple, Pooja Tamatiwala, Hieu Tran, Kristine Tran, Jessica Tran, David Tseum, Jack Truong, Richard Tu, Leah Vu, Serrish Waseem, Cesley Yevko, Raffi Yilmaz, Kate Zaslavsky, Harris Zulgaranian, Iman Zulgaranian

After placing second in the Provincial Competition, Jessica Tran travelled to Nashville Tennessee to compete in the North American DECA championships. She thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to represent King City.

Prefects

In alphabetical orders Zafra Ahmed, Sarah Blagdon, Mary Brilziger, Andrew DiGiovanni, Serena Ertekl, Vanessa Fazari, Robbie Fuhrman, Lindsay Grant, Dionne Kingston, Samantha Lavelle, Runak Javahery, Emma Leon, Lev Harder, Jessica Messina, Tiffany Mores, Stephanie Myers, Deva Nark, Julia Palser, Shereen Parbodin, Joe Anne Peterson, Christine Rife, Sunny Russo, Jennifer Sartor, Amanda Schlickeranz, Katie Schofield, Anastasia Singh, Jothi Singh, Roopa Tamkowala, Maria Thomaidis, Sarah Unwin, Sahirah Waseem, Casssey Yevick, Kate Zaslavsky

The busy bees of the school, prefects are the go-between for most clubs. They do stuff, such as the red nose fundraiser earlier this year. They aren't bound specifically to school either. They make a point of helping outside of school and have started to break away from the other clubs and establish themselves as their own exclusive club.

Grad Committee

The Grad Committee helps to make the graduating year worthwhile for seniors. They are responsible for many fundraisers, socials, and of course PROM! Working closely in this club promotes camaraderie, teamwork, and like any good club at King, builds school spirit.

In Alphabetical Order: Alyza Chatur, Vanessa Fazari, Anna Geller, Afra Khan, Hanis Luong, Susan Liu, Arunima Muzumder, Urs Nark, Avery Ny, Andrea Petarina, Steven Perrotti, Sunny Russo, Alicia Sanchar, Anastasia Singh, Cassandra Syropelithas, Alyssa Small, Ana Susan, Katie Thobean, Sarah Unwin, Loan Yu, Jenny Yau, Casssey Yevick

Tap Mentors

Grade nines have their Tap mentors to thank for getting adjusted to high school life so quickly. From Roc King camp to studying for exams, tap mentors are there to help. They're handpicked through an application process, based on grades, attendance, enthusiasm and commitment. Rest assured, our grade nines are well taken care of.

Book Club

Got books? This club does! Heaven for any book lovers, this club meets every month on a Friday to discuss a book that was selected the month before and they have fun in the process. All you need to join is a love of books and discussion. It's a great way to meet new people and read books you might never have read before.

Anime Club

In alphabetical orders:
Leona Burlew, Danielle Carrasco, Gabriel Haby, Victoria Loo, Leon Mai, Jennifer Matthewson, Connor Mulder, Erica Mulder, Sarah Rance, Shannon Smith, Sonida Tuy, Arneet Virk

Here's a club that appreciates all forms of media. Every Tuesday and Thursday at noon this club convenes in to form what Mr. Harris calls "a multi media / internet cafe, where people can watch anime as well as talk, chat online and enjoy each others' company" this is all in appreciation of this Asian form of animation.

K.C.S.J.

Alica, Leona Burlew, Danielle Carrasco, Steven Bal Bello, Serena Erbik, Vanessa Fazari, Alison Guitres, Genevieve, Rhonne Kingston, Samantha Lenutto Jen, Leon Mai, Melba, Vivian Willard, Erika Mulder, Betty Ostronwski, Sarah Rance, Katie Schaffield, Jodi Singh, Alyssa Snell, Shannon Smith, Tamia, Maria Thomaidis, Sonida Tuy.

Science is this club's favourite subject. A team of highly specialized students have fun investigating different things with teacher, Mrs. Gaspar. Wearing their "protective gear" (safety goggles and long, white coats) nothing too dangerous can occur.

French Club

At K.C.S.S there are many opportunities to learn and embrace new languages. French Club is one of the biggest clubs around that has stood the test of time. Mrs. Duvall is the teacher who spends her extra time educating the students who feel that French is an important language. There are many fun activities that allow a student interested in French to grasp the vocabulary.

In alphabetical order: Mallory Andersen, Julia Berlin, Justice Birch, Sarah Blagdon, Mackenzie Coulter, Ashley Donohue, Donald Ellison, Tyler Ellison, Rob Fellinger, Amanda Galati, Sophie Gauthier, Matthew Gray, Sarah Gray, Roxy Hayton, Samantha Imazin, Alex James, Komissar Kainius, Alannah Kowalewski, Mason Le Vise, Lianne Litow, Nancy McClellan, Ashley Mirakos, Alicia Nagy, Angela Nata, Samuel Neudell, Robby Phillips, Amanda Schickelzatz, Eriny Schmidt, Dan Spray, Elise Steebeck

Choir

Choir is a club where everyone sings in harmony. The K.C.S.S. choir sings for both student and parental audiences. Mr. Walker, the choir's conductor, chooses special songs for the choir to learn and perform perfectly. Mr. Walker and the students in the choir, spend their time singing after school and during lunches. Keep up the hard work!

In alphabetical order: Heather Edmunds, Hailey Farkas, Sarah Jones, Kaylah Lewis, Melba McMillan-McKinley, Laura Middleton, Sarah Pino, Christine Rife, Torry Street, Shannon Tanner, Christine Thebeau, Lisa Zebrowski

Senior Band

 Leslie Nichols, Stephanie
 Nickerson, Elissa Ottaway,
 Sarah Pineo, Christine Rife,
 Matt Roche, Jennifer Sartor,
 Kaitie Thebeau, Aidan
 Todd-Parikh

Senior Band is King City's group of more experienced musicians who perform at every available opportunity. They enjoy playing for the student body and have tonnes of school spirit. From tuning their instruments to taking a bow, these guys are ready for anything.

Junior Band

In alphabetical order:
 Tommy Cestoff, Andrew Daigleish,
 Brenden Dance,
 Alex Dewdney, Scott Eckford,

 Madine Stoermer, Tonya Strickel,
 Jordan Swift,
 Sergio Van-Tellied,
 Dalton Whitaker, Justin Wright,
 Aya Zandvakili

The grade nines and tens of K.C.S.S make up what is known as Junior Band. The Junior Band is taught by Mr. Walker. Although they are only the beginning of the future band here at K.C.S.S they are talented and large. Together they make incredible music that would move anybody to think that they are talented beyond their years.

Welcome To The Bridge...

Woodbridge Signature Trademark: Can I get a medium medium triple-triple and an ice cap? A Tim Hortons can be found on every corner in Woodbridge.

Sick...

Dan Arget, Sylvia Buttigieg, and Chris Di Meo all show their individuality with their out of the ordinary, against the Woodbridge standards style.

Dude... Bro... Mint... Solid... Bombs...

King City students can always be found in Woodbridge, in supped up cars, at a local Tim Hortons, Colossus, Canada's Wonderland, and even through out the streets of Market Lane. Over the years King City's student population of Woodbridge has declined, but that doesn't mean that you can't point out these students in a crowd. From skateboarding shoes, to trucker hats, Kappa clothing, to civics, the scenes of Woodbridge are constantly changing. Still Woodbridge brings in a diversity to King City not just with clothing styles but with attitudes as well. From Popular phrases such as "Bro that's Intense" and the sound of the cars on the streets you know when you've entered Woodbridge.

Lasting Friends:
Students Anna
Gitter and Cassandra
Skropolithas can always be found together, whether it be in the hallways
of King or at a local hangout in Woodbridge

Friends Stephan Sansano and Lauren Pittin aren't just friendly faces you see around the hallways of King,

You know you live in Woodbridge when ...

...the music of the car next to you is louder than your own.

...when girls are shopping for a new pair of jeans and a guy is buying the same pair as you.

...there is a Tim Hortons on every corner.

...when everyone knows each-other and almost everyone is related.

...there is a large group of imported cars sitting in an empty parking lot.

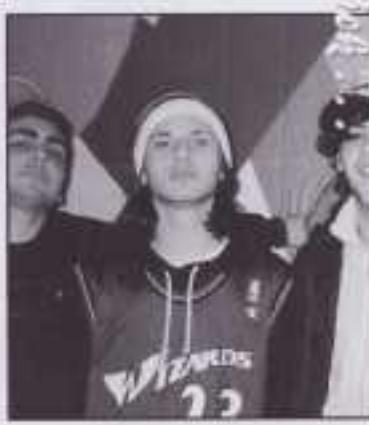

The most "famous" scene to see all through out

Nob-town

Although the tiny town of Nobleton may seem peaceful and quiet, it isn't when the students at KCSS invade!

If you want to be part of the action, try heading to Tim Hortons, Tower Burgers, or the Nobleton Arena when hockey games are being played.

Everyone has something to say about Nobleton!

What the locals say:

- "It's boring, but nice because you know everyone's name" says NataLee Birks

- "Hockey legends can be born here!" says Briar Boynton, whose cousin Nick plays for the Boston Bruins.

People who don't live in Nobleton say:

- "Don't blink, you might miss it!" jokes Grade 12 student Mike Moro

- "Why does the sign say 'Thanks for shopping in Nobleton' when there aren't any stores?" asks Justin Ball

Tower BURGERS!

When students think of Nobleton, the thoughts of Tower Burgers often comes to mind. "It's all about the Tower Burgers!" states Grade 10 student and Schomberg resident Nicole Phillips. Jennifer Guidolin agrees: "I like Tower Burgers."

Three's Company (L-R): Grade 11 student Erica Schmidt stands beside her fellow co-workers and students Sarah Hamilton and Melissa Genge at the local IGA.

Carolyn MacRitchie is all smiles while serving customers at the Country Bake Shoppe.

"Will that be all?" is a common phrase used by Grade 11 student Wade Kitten, who works at the Tim Hortons in the Nobleton Plaza.

Cardinal Golf Club has a Program for your Junior Golfer

- Junior Leagues: Cardinal G.C. offers in house League Play for kids under 13 years of age at our Kettle Creek Executive Course and for kids 13-16 at Cardinal itself
- Junior Clinics Our full service Golf Academy offers a selection of Spring group lessons for the beginner as well as those more experienced.
- Junior Golf Camps: The Cardinal Academy offers one of the finest week long Golf camps in the GTA area. Campers are led through a week of learning and fun by our CPGA Professionals assisted by Camp Counsellors. We have 1 professional and 1 Counsellor per 12 children to ensure the safest environment for your child.
- In 2003 we began a program to encourage parents to golf with their kids. The "Kids Play Free Program" allows children to play golf free at our facilities after 6pm everyday when accompanied by an Adult paying out special evening green fee of $26.00 + gst at Cardinal and $16.00 + gst at Kettle Creek. No one can teach your kids the rules and etiquette involved in the game of Golf better than you can, so get involved with your child in 2004!

From The Mean Streets Of KC!

For the residence of Kings Cross Estates all the way to Hoop Street, King City is the home of the hard knocks. Although not everyone who attends K.C.S.S lives in this town, this page is devoted to the faces of the students that know KC better than anyone else. Whether it's chillin at Country Style or hanging out down at the shelter, King City is full of.... Stuff? According to Shanna Bouke, a grade 12 student and a long time resident of King, "KC is the perfect place to live as long as you are mobile. With a car, you are free to leave whenever you want, but without one? You're stuck in King City." Anyway that said, these friendly faces of K.C.S.S are representin KC What!

The park is a place where many KC students come to get away from it all!

Nick and Adrienne cozy up in a picture to show their love for King

A local hangout for many of the students and residents of King City. One French Vanilla please!

Keepin it gangsta... Jeremy represents the people of KC with style and attitude

These two long time residents of King like rock on in between classes
